Hoedowners

by Shirley Hanrion

Our big Thank You to all who attended our Christmas dance with Johnny Preston calling and Karen MacDonald cueing. We reached eight squares after everyone fully arrived. People even came in later than expected to be able to experience this great caller and singer. One couple drove back home, coming from Los Angeles, just in time to attend the fun dance. We will have Johnny again in December of 2012.

The Do Pasos earned our banner with a square from their club. Now we need to all concentrate on car pooling and attending their once monthly dances with Darren Gallina calling.

Also, many thanks for donating to the Toys for Tots, we seemed to fill the donation box with our many toys.

On the 8th of January, we start the year out right with strolling caller Dale Hoppers, with Dave Cleek cueing. We are dark on January 22, due to most of our board members being at the King City Winter Festival. Enjoy the festival too, it is a lot of fun and many people from the Central Coast attend this one since it is located so close to us.

We look forward to seeing you in a fun square soon.

Do Paso Squares

by Susan Seliskar

The Do Paso's celebrated a yummy Christmas dinner before their dance. To add to the festivities Jan Easter and John Whiteley announced their engagement and will be married by the time you read this! Best wishes! We are also wishing for good health for Janice Dawes and Bob Oeck. Let's start out the New Year with a bang and come dance at our January 5th dance at the Grange Hall in Paso Robles. It will begin at 7:00 and don't forget to bring a healthy treat to share for all those New Year resolutions!

Squaws and Pas

By Judy Horton

Don and I had the privilege and the honor of being present at an 80th birthday luncheon for Joyce Tyger on December 29, 2011. We first knew Joyce back in the 1980's when we were square dancing with the Valley Whirlers. The party was hosted by Joyce's daughter, Debbie, and all four of Joyce's children were there as well as Gene Hershberger, her husband. You will see Gene and Joyce at all the Squaws & Pas dances as well as the Hoedowners dances each month.

We were happy to see John and Margaret Sekishiro at our round dance party in December. As many of you know, John and Margaret have bought a second home in Mesa, Arizona where they will be living during the late fall and winter months. For years they have taken their motor home to Mesa for a month so they can participate in square and round dance classes. Now they will have a place to live and they can stay longer. We will miss them this winter but will see them again at our dances this summer. John and Margaret have been faithful supporters of our club for many years and John has been responsible for setting up our caller schedule.

In January we will have Rod Shuping calling for us on January 14th and Darren Gallina on January 28th. Please come join us for two fun evenings of dancing.

As I mentioned in December, please save March 31st for a special dance with Ron and Linda Mineau. This dance will take the place of our April 14th dance when we will be dark. Ron was the caller for Valley Whirlers and Pismo and Taws before he transferred with his job to Texas.
