Club Chatter

Hoedowners

by Shirley Hanrion

Due to Easter and the State Convention in April, and Mother's Day and Memorial Day in May, our club will be able to dance only once locally each month.

On April 22, we dance to Vic Ceder, with Karen MacDonald cueing. Vic will be returning from the State Convention in Visalia early enough to call for us. There are many dancers that don't attend conventions, and we wanted to have Vic share his exuberance with all of us upon returning from the convention.

In May, we are changing to the third Sunday, May 20, to avoid Mother's Day and Memorial Day festivities and are looking forward to having Scot and Erin Byars from Sacramento to call and cue for our 63rd Anniversary Dance. We have not had Scot call or Erin cue for the Hoedowners yet, and are glad he and his wife will be coming our way to do the combination for us..

Do Paso Squares

by Susan Seliskar

Happy Easter to all! The Do Pasos will be dancing the second Thursday in April as Darren has other obligations. After a short business meeting in March, the Do Pasos will be considering funding the Mid State Fair Demonstration themselves. It was the consensus that we should be doing something for our community and promote our heritage. Square dancing on the Central Coast appears to be disappearing and we would not be doing our youngsters a service by not exposing them to a part of our past. We have also voted to accept the offer of the County Clerk to man a voting precinct for the June 5th primary election. If you can help, give us a call. Happy Birthday to our one and only John Johnson! See you at the dance, remember the dance starts at 7:00 pm, April 12th at The Grange Hall in Paso Robles.

Squaws and Pas

By Judy Horton

If this Chatter gets to you by the 23rd of March, it is because of Anne Edgcombe's diligent effort to get it out early for April. It also gives me the chance to tell all of you that haven't heard via email that Michael Kellogg will be arriving early to call advanced tips from 6:30-8:00 p.m. for our Saturday night dance on March 24th. This information is especially important for advanced square dancers. We will have regular plus level dancing and round dancing from 8:00-10:00 p.m.

Also, we will have a "5th Saturday Dance", March 31st, at the YMCA sponsored by the CCSDA featuring Ron & Linda Mineau as callers and Karen MacDonald and David Cleek as cuers. (Ron Mineau was a caller for both the Pismos & Taws and the Valley Whirlers for many years.) There will be pre-rounds from 7-8 p.m., plus level dancing, rounds between tips, and an advanced star tip from 8:00-10:00 p.m., and "Tough DBD" from 10:00-10:30 p.m. Come prepared to dance as much or as little as you want! Also, it would be much appreciated if you could bring some finger food to share.

During April we will only have one dance: April 28th with Jay Henderson. Hopefully many of you will be able to attend the CA State Square Dance Convention in Visalia from April 20th – 22nd. Doug and Leslie Dodge from Santa Barbara will be featured cuers.

We were all happy to see Steve and Janice Neumann at the quarterly round dance party on March 10, 2012. They are very happy living in Prescott, AZ. We are looking forward to having Margaret and John Sekishiro back dancing with us soon when they return from their winter home in Mesa, AZ. I'm sure they have been doing a lot of round and square dancing.
