CLUB CHATTER

Hoedowners

by Shirley Hanrion

In August we will have two special callers coming to call our dances. On Sunday, August 9, Andy Allemao will be calling, and on Sunday August 23, the great Texan, Deborah Carroll-Jones will be back to call for us. We are very fortunate to have these two great callers as well as so many others come to San Luis Obispo. Usually, I am able to get these great callers as they call the night before north or south of us for a dance and possibly are "going through."

We have had news of a new CCSDA square dance class starting on Wednesday, September 16 at the Grange Hall, same time 7-9 p.m. and each week thereafter. Please let all your neighbors and friends know so we can have a large class from the very start. Ads will appear in the newspapers in late August and early September. Now, all the recently graduated newer dancers can help be angels for the classes.

Do Paso Squares

By Susan Seliskar

The warm Dog Days of summer are here! We enjoyed a nice July dance with several visitors. I would like to make sure the July birthday wishes go out to Richard Stokes and Janice Dawes. We also welcome new members MaryAnne and Allen Chaney to the Do Pasos.

CCSDA, will be holding a new dancer class starting Wednesday, September 16th with Dave Rensberger as an instructor. The class will take place in San Luis Obispo at the Grange however, once finished with the class, students are encouraged to join any of our CCSDA clubs. Please encourage your friends and family to give square dancing a try! The classes pump life into our clubs and we here in North County could sure use some more dancers!

Birthday wishes go out to MaryAnne Chaney on August 6th, Janet Mueller and Janice Whiteley who share the same birthday on August 21st. We will be holding our next regular dance on August 13th. The dance starts at 7:00PM at the Paso Robles Grange, 627 Creston Road. See you there!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

After many years of being at every square dance class night to help "run the show," Shirley Hanrion has decided to retire from her position of maintaining and bringing dance supplies to all the new dancer class nights and also keeping tabs on all the classes since they have been in force. A new volunteer is needed to take over the tasks of doing this now.

Shirley states, "I have been helping host all the new dancer class nights for CCSDA since their inception, which has been probably since 2001, and most steadily since 2007. I have enjoyed doing this, but now it is time for me to step down and see another more able-bodied person take this over. I have enjoyed watching the many new dancers learn and grow each week and seeing them hanging in there on each new call given them. The tasks of just being there, maintaining the supplies needed for the class nights, and collecting door admissions is not hard, and I have missed only a small handful of class nights since the very beginning."

Please let Joe Boyajian, President of CCSDA know if you would be willing to help by taking this over.
