CLUB CHATTER

Hoedowners

by Shirley Hanrion

On Sunday, November 8, we have returning to us Scot & Erin Byars to call and cue our first dance of the month. Scot and Erin are very nice to have all the way from Sacramento for us to enjoy. Scot comes up with some interesting calls and his humor is infectious.

On Sunday, November 22, we have more local to us Darren Gallina calling an early Thanksgiving dance, Dave Cleek will be cueing this one. Darren always calls a fun dance and what a great way to enjoy a preholiday event.

Our new dancer class has dwindled somewhat as always happens each year, until all the new people decide what to do. We have some good dancers in this new group, dedicated and quick learning and they are having fun learning the steps. We have a young girl, granddaughter of Pam & George, that is a wiz at picking up square dancing skills and it is a delight for us to see her participation with us.

Thank you for all the returning members in our Hoedowners' club. We lost some and gained a few in the renewal process of memberships. Supporting clubs is important to square dancing as a whole, helping to keep the square dance association alive.

Do Paso Squares

By David Dixon

The Do Paso Squares gathered on the second Thursday of October to the steady sounds of Jay Henderson for square dancing and the smooth sounds of David & Susan Cleek for round dancing. Our new club officers were installed: Rick Hamilton is now the Club's President & our primary contact person, Barbara Dixon is Vice President, Mateja Seliskar is Secretary, and Faith & Jim Lawrence are the new Treasurers. Many thanks to the Seliskars & the Dawes for keeping the Club going these last few years. Also, happy November birthday to Reg & Lisa Haggett.

Our next dance will start at 7pm on November 12th at the Paso Robles Grange Hall. Be sure to let us know at the November dance which holiday dish you would like to share with your fellow square dancers in December.

That's because our Christmas season will begin on December 10th with a dance, potluck, and silent auction. Feel free to bring any gift, seasonal or otherwise, be it homemade or a white elephant, to the auction to help raise money for the Do Paso Squares. Join us and come prepared to do your Christmas shopping.

SQUARE DANCERS NEEDED!

With the starting of the New Dancers Class in September we will need help! Angel's are needed to dance in squares with the beginning dancers! It is a great way to get exercise, and have fun! Get to know new people and in turn help Square Dancing to Stay Alive on the Central Coast.
