CLUB CHATTER

Hoedowners

by Shirley Hanrion

Thank you all for supporting our two very fun August dances, the first with Steve Woodard and the second one with our great featured caller, Deborah Carroll-Jones. Too bad for those that couldn't come to these two special dances, but we had over five squares. A special treat at the Woodard dance was Steve teaming up with Jay Henderson and Darren Gallina the last half hour of the dance.

On September 11, we have Mike Wright from Martinez, CA, which we can theme patriotic due to the date of 9/11. On September 25, we will have Jim Smith and his wife Judy Keller from Buena Park who will be calling and cueing, respectively. This will be a Hawaiian -themed dance, so wear your comfortable Hawaiian shirts and dress to enjoy the day with us.

A reminder that annual club dues are now payable by you to your respective club. You will be hearing from me soon, or in September asking for your renewals if you are a Hoedowner. Please be so kind and get this small yearly renewal in early to us. We have to turn the money in to our CCSDA Treasurer and she in turn sends it to on to CCSDA by the deadline.

Do Paso Squares

David Dixon

The Do Paso Squares enjoyed dancing to Jay Henderson on Thursday, August 11th.

Our next club dance will be at 7pm on September 8th in Paso Robles at the Grange Hall. Here's wishing a happy birthday to Darren Gallina, who was born in the month of September.

It is time to pay your annual Do Paso Squares Dues. Your Club needs to turn in the dues to CCSDA by the 1st of October.

David Dixon

SLO Motion Squares

September will find 7-8 rigs in Los Banos for Labor Day weekend. We are looking forward to getting together after a busy summer, our traditional Saturday potluck will be at 5 pm. All Central Coast dancers are welcome.

We will be adding new members for the 2017 year, Dave and Jamie Ludwig bought a new Terra motorhome. Dues will be "due" the end of September, still $5 per person. In October several of us will be in Yuba City for Harvest Hoedown. Come join us!
